

JAR no longer requires monthly updates on the administrative status of command death investigations. We appreciate all your cooperation and timely submissions in the past months. As always, JAR is available to provide guidance on any investigation related issue.